

Erving Hometown Heroes Banner Application

Program Description

The Hometown Hero Banner program is intended to honor Veterans native of the Town of Erving, or who currently reside in Erving, and have been honorably discharged from the military, or are currently serving. Banners will exhibit the image of the Veteran/ Service Member, branch of service, years of service, and campaign served in. They will be placed on East & West Main Streets, and at Town facilities, as space is available. Specific location requests are not accepted. If maximum banner capacity is reached you will be placed on the list for the following year. There is no cost to participate in the program. Only one application is accepted per Veteran.
